THE WASHINGTON CRITIC. Washington, D. C.

RICHARD IL SYLVESTER, . . Editor

WASHINGTON, D. C., OCT. 21, 1885

ANDY JOHNSON'S LOYALTY About four years ago Mr. Chauncey M. Depew of New York met General Grant at dinner and had a long conversation with him, chiefly about the General's relations with President Andrew Johnson. It has just occurred to Mr. Depew to write up his recollections of this conversation in an open letter to Colonel F. D. Grant, which was vester day furnished to the press. There is nothing in it that has not been said before by the traducers of President Johnson, and it is a little singular that a man of Mr. Depew's reputed intelligence should all at one become inspired to contribute of his stock of misinformation to a new attack upon President Johnson's memory, The time and the occasion seem pecu-Harly inappropriate for reviving charges which in the estimation of those who best knew Mr. Johnson never had any foundation in fact. That President Johnson had ambition is well known. That he desired to expedite the reunion of the lately divided family of States by some quicker and better process than that of partisan reconstruction is equally well understood. That he ever contemplated any scheme of self-aggrandizement at the expense of the honor of his country or entered into any conspiracy for such a restoration of political power to the South as would practically nullify the settlements of the war is too preposterous to credit, in view of the President's historic devotion to the Union and great personal sacrifices to its maintenance. We fear that Mr. Depew's recollection of the conversation is somewhat misty. It is not improbable that the conversation itself was more or less muddled. Dependence is not always to be placed upon what is said at the convivial banqueting board between the sherry and champagne and other more potential beverages.

OHIO IN A BAD WAY.

Is Ohio really degenerating? When she succeeded in having Mr. Hayes nominated for the Presidency it became a popular saying that "Ohio is a great State." And when Ohio began to take in all the offices after Mr. Haves was inaugurated it became a greater State. It succeeded in nominating the late President Garfield, and then it was the greatest State of them all. It got altogether too big, and became pos-States and Cincinnati was the capital of the confederation. It took on a large and compact assortment of the "big

From that time dates its degeneracy. Senator Sherman and the Republicans went a-wooing Coplah, Danville and the bloody shirt generally. The Democrats shelved Mr. Thurman, split all to pieces on the tariff, because of the reduction of the duty on wool, and further divided themselves into "kids," led by John R. McLean and "mossbacks" of whom Senator Thurman was supposed to be the typical repre sentative, though he did not then take an active part in State politics.

Then came the Cincinnati riots. The people of that city were like the Mikado. They had not seen an execution for such a long time that they peremptorily ordered several to satisfy the people of the modern Titipu.

The next thing was a much-mixed election, with threats of more riots. And to crown it all an investigation shows that the party managers out there, who have always considered themselves the smartest of the smart, have been caught in the bald-headed, palpable and silly trick of putting more votes in the ballot-box than there were voters registered. Was there ever any thing more stupidly ridiculous? Truly Objo has fallen. If she does not look out even Rhode Island will be turning up its little pug nose at her.

THERE is a difference between District Attorney Martine of New York and U. S. Ditstrict Attorney Dorsheimer as to the prosecution of the Civil and U. S. cases against Warner and Ward. Mr. Martine claims that Mr. Dorsheimer did not consult with him before having Ward arrested, and that the arrest will prevent Warner from being used as a U. S. witness against Ward; and all this with a view to letting Ward off. Mr. Dorsheimer replies that Mr. Martine does not know the elementary rules of law. He says that the only ground upon which Warner can refuse to testify is that he would thereby criminate himself. And Mr. Dorsheimer intimates that Mr. Martine is desirous of letting Warner go free. Of the latter's arrest he says: "The shot fired at Warner from the United States Attorney's office has hit a great many birds in the same covert. The Times was winged. The Tribuse and World were hit. But Martine and Mr. I. H. Work were struck heavily."

MRS. ELLA WHEELER WILCOX IS said to be writing a book, in which she will mercilessly lash all those wicked newspaper men who have made fun of her "flery yearn" and other personal and poetical possessions. She will no doubt thoroughly vindicate herself and cover her traducers with confusion. It is a source of great satisfaction to know that THE CRITIC has never spoken of the lady except in the most serious and complimentary manner. We have re-

WASHINGTON CRITIC frained even from claiming for our own Joyce, the Bard of Georgetown Heights, the exclusive authorship of "Laugh and the World Laughs with You;" but have always said that b was the joint production of herself and the gallant Colonel. And Mrs. Wijeox knows this. But we would advise every effensive paragrapher to five as a bird to the mountains.

Perrus this year are unusually muddy. The Ohlo campaign was con ducted on very stale and old-time tac tics. In Virginia personal abuse runs rampant. There has never been a more narrow-gauge contest with Innumerable petty allegations against candi dates than that In New York, And Maryland, too, is following the exam ples which have been set her. The regular and Independent Democrats and the Republicans are indulging in all sorts of mean little abuse of one an other. In a speech at Easton last night General Bradley T. Johnson called Senator Gorman "the Mahone of Mary

A RATHER novel bridal party arrived at Baltimore yesterday. They were Mr. and Mrs. Hugh J. McBirney of Chicago, and they came on the yacht White Wing, which they chartered for an indefinite time in New York. They will make a four of the Southern sea board cities and also visit the West In dies. The crew of the yacht consists of the captain and six men, the bride and groom being the only passengers. The expenses of the trip will be about $50 a day, almost as costly as a visit to Niagara or Saratoga at the height of the season.

As an interrogatory pertinent to this eld subject newly presented, we submit the following from the New York Herald of this morning: "Among the disclosures that are to come, we await with special interest a sufficient explanation why the treasonable propositions of President Johnson, which General Grant related to Mr. Depew and which Colonel Grant certifies that he has letters and documents to attest, were omitted from the articles of impeach ment presented against the President by the House of Representatives in

THERE IS a good deal of talk in the press about the "superfluous young woman," because in some States there are more of her than of the young man. We do not agree to the use of the word superfluous in this connection. There ould be no such thing as a superdulty of young ladies, especially in this com munity. As between the superfluous young man and the "superfluous" coung woman, give us the latter seven days of the week.

THE New York Republicans are counting a good deal on a forthcoming surprise in their favor which, it is un derstood, is soon to emanate from Mr. Conkling. The latter is supposed to have settled all his old political accounts, and to be once more in line with his party. Yet we know of no mathematical rule by which a Conkling surprise can be accurately measured in

THE social season in Texas has been inaugurated with great edat. There was a ball in Hallitsville, in that State, a few days ago, and two young men had a little disagreement. The hip pocket was called in as an umpire, and the dance went on with a fireworks acsessed of the idea that it was the United | companiment. When the smoke had cleared away it was found that one man had been killed and one fatally and two slightly wounded.

WHEN WE read about the millions open millions of letters delivered and collected by the letter-carriers during the past year, the wonder grows how this country ever managed to get along without these useful attaches of the postal service. It is very certain that we shall never be able to do without them in the future and they deserve moreover to be liberally paid for their work.

THE American Street-Railway Association will hold its fourth regular meeting in St. Louis to-day and a large representation of this important interest is expected. The striking railway employes of St. Louis will doubtless avail themselves of this excellent opportunity of presenting their grievances before a full court.

THE Columbus Dispatch says that Senator Sherman "does not propose to be outflanked in his Presidential move ments by any young man from Cincil nati, and will therefore follow Judge Foraker to New York." We have had frequent occasion to notice that Mr. Sherman's head never gets much out

IT IS REPORTED from Rangoon that King Theebaw said the other day to his Generals that he would personally lead his troops against the English army. It is more likely that when Theebaw gets sober he will content himself by beheading fifty or a hundred more of his near relatives. SAYS the Washington correspondent of the Cincinnati Enquirer: "I dropped in the United States Supreme Court room a few days ago. The habits of the Justices pending an argument are striking. For instance Bradley listens for a few minutes and then falls asleep. Hisreveries are checked when the court adjourns. Miller sometimes closes his eyes, but not to sleep. His is said to be the most vigorous intellect on the bench, Bradley the most subtle, Matthews the most penetrating and Fields the most comprehensive. As the court is now organized it is conceded by lawyers to be the strongest judicial body in this or any other
